

Feb. 1, 1971

Dear Dan,

Much thanks for everything, which arrived today. I've asked the friend that I sent the Esquire article to to send it to you, so you should have it by now. When you've read it, send it back to me, and I'll put it a few changes I made on pp 20/21 (a little bit blunter language mostly) and send it on to Moose.

All the best to you,

Beth

P.S. I just heard in a letter from Don Luce in Saigon that Thieu replaced the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court with one of his own men after the Chau decision. Had you heard anything about it? Do you know when it happened? I've written Don and also the Monitor man, Dan Southerland, in Saigon to inquire further. If I can get confirmation and an approximate date, I'll add a sentence in the article.